The Maine and Vermont Elections. The Republican party has carried Maine by a majority of over twenty-five thousand, be-election of 1864. The Legislature stands thus: Senators, 30 | S. Tucker :republicans; no democrats-with one district to hear from. The House will probably contain 136 republicans and fifteen demo-

Every county has chosen republican officers, Aroostook possibly excepted.

In Vermont Gov. Dillingham has received a majority of nearly twenty-five thousand against a majority of nineteen thousand last year, being a gain in that State for the republicans of about five thousand. Returns of representatives chosen to the Legislature in two hundred and seventeen townships show the election of only 13

A despatch to the New York Tribune, of the 15th inst., from Baltimore, states that the Council of that City refused to tender to the President its hospitalities, or to participate in the reception prepared for him, on the ground that he has laid aside the dignity of his office, is on a stumping tour denouncing his political opponents, and has caused the murder of one man and the wounding of Great solicitude has been exhibited by Northern journals to discover whether Gen. Grant who was accompanying the President approved of his political addresses. The following dispatch from Columbus, Ohio,

"In conversation with Gen. Cox last evening, Gen. Grant and Admiral Farragut declared their disapproval of the President's policy and commended that of Congress. Both gentlemen said substantially that they were participants in the President's campaign tour by express instructions, and not from on on their part. tions were not strictly private, for several parties were present.'

The commander of the "Boys in Blue" who waited on Gen. Grant at Woods' Theatre in Cincinnatti, has published a card, setting forth what Gen. Grant said to him on the occasion, which we publish as follows:

"After being introduced and taking me by the hand, he said : I am not a politician. The President of the United States is my superior officer, and I am under his command. beg of you, if you have any regard for me, to march your company away, as I do not wish to be thus annoyed. I consider this a political demonstration, for a selfish and political object, and all such I disapprove of. [From the Newbern Times-Extra of Sept. 16th.] GREAT FIRE IN NEWBERN.

A terrible fire broke out this morning at the furniture store of C. A. Nelson & Co., on Middle street, supposed to be the work of an incendiary, about 1 o'clock, and rapidly spread right and left, until both sides of the street, from Broad to Pollok, were in a light flame, and now lie in ashes. The vacant lot between Stevenson's corner and the brick building occupied now by Robbins & Co., checked the fire in that direction, but it swept down to Pollok, and turning Dissosway's old corner swept everything up Pollok street to the residence of Wm. G. Hall, Esq., which building is now being blown up, three heavy explosions having taken place since we commenced this writing, so that the entire block facing Middle and Pollok streets, from Stevenson's corner round to the Railroad, may be considered a complete loss, and all that portion of Middle street, from the Episcopa Church square up to the old Court House corner.

Nothing but the most extraordinary efforts of the fire department saved the entire block on the South side of Pollok, between Middle and Hancock, which had it caught, would have communicated to the block bounded by Middle and Craven and Pollok, and South Front, and thus swept out the entire business portion of the city. So that, to arrive at a just estimate of the services of the fire departments on this occasion, it is only necessary to estimate the value of four entire squares of the business heart of our city, for without it no human effort could have staid the ravages of the devouring element until it had swept down to the water edge. Our whole male population was on the street, and all did what they could. The tops of the houses, in the vicinity of the fire, were covered by citizens who by wetting blankets, extinguishing sparks, and extraordinary exertions in various ways, rendered incalculable ser-

The fire was so sudden and spread so rapidly that Mr. Nelson and family, who resided on the second floor of his store were compelled to jump from a second story window in order to save their lives, in doing which two female members were slightly in jured. We heard of one other lady getting a limb broken by a similar process but did not learn the name, and several persons were ed into the Union, and deliver it entirely more or less injured by explosions and other- and forever from the misrule of traitors. wise, but fortunately we have heard of no

We could not ascertain, but our impression is that very few tien to the Union Convention at Raleigh on goods or other property were saved. By the extraordinary efforts of Capt. R. A. Shotwell, assisted by the corps of Gaston House waiters, saved nearly or quite all of the stock of Henry W. Jones & Co., on Middle street, tion the Secretary was requested to send the but as a general thing, we think nearly everything was consumed

This calamity will fall heavily upon many of our citizens who had just began to recuperate from losses heretofore sustained, and to get into a condition to live. We suppose the losses in many instances were covered partially or wholly by insurance, but to what extent we have, as yet, no means of knowing.

We copy from the Index, of this City, the following description of the magnificent building now in course of erection on Faying a solid gain of ten thousand since the etteville Street, by those enterprising and public-spirited citizens, Messrs. W. H. & R.

> TUCKER'S HALL.-This new building, which is being erected on Fayetteville street by Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker, (who made their money by a number of years of liberal trading with our people, and are now liberally investing it in a permanent manner among us by adding to the convenience and beauty of the city,) is gradually going up, and will soon tower among the other I ness houses in its neighborhood. We took a peep, yesterday, at the plan and specifications of the Hall, which enables us to give a slight outline of what it will be, when completed.

The ground plat is forty-three feet four inches front, on Fayetteville street, running back one hundred and twenty feet, with six feet area in front, making the entire depth one hundred and twenty-six feet. The basement runs back sixty feet, and is to be nine feet pitch. The first story runs back the entire length of the building, and is to be fifteen feet pitch. This is to be the store-room, and will be by far the largest in the city.

The second story is designed for public exhibitions, concerts, &c., and will be very comfortably arranged for the purpose. This story is to be twenty-six feet pitch, with a gallery on the end and both sides, ten feet pitch and ten feet wide. At one end of this floor will be the stage, twenty-two feet deep, flanked by dressing-room, property-room, &c., and at the other, a saloon, parlor, dressing-room, and ticket-office, which will take up twenty-seven feet of the length of the room, which will leave for seats a space of forty-three by seventy-one feet-space sufficient, including the galleries, to seat fifteen hundred people.

The front will be of iron, supported by brick columns from the basement, with granite cap and bondstones. The roof will be fireproof, and will have two sky-lights, by which the light will be admitted to the stories below by means of floor-lights.

The whole edifice is to be finished off, inside and outside, in elegant style, and when completed will be an ornament to the city, and one of the finest edifices in the State. The plans and specifications for this hall were drawn by Mr. B. W. Warner, Architect, 132, Broadway, New York, and the contract for the work was taken by Mr. Thos. H. Coates, who built the Baptist Church of this city, and the east and west additions to the main building at the University of North Carolina. There are about thirty hands laware, first Tuesday; Illinois, first Tues- now employed on the work, under the immediate superintendence of Mr. John J. Maguire, to whose courtesy we are indebted for the facts we have here given.

Chatham County, N. C. The meeting was called to order by appointing Nathan Stout, Chairman, and N. D. Woody Secretary. The object of the meeting was explained by Col James Wren, on motion, the Chair appointed the following gentlemen to draw up resolutions for the action of the meeting, viz : Lewis Horniday, Solomon Dixon, Benj. Way, K. B. Wren, Henry Staley, Job Stout and Caleb Dixon. They reported the following preamble and resolutions which were unanimously

WHEREAS, The condition of our country being most unsatisfactory from want of harmony between the Executive and Legislative departments of the general govern the common peace jeopardized, and the prosperity of the States in rebellion destroyed by their existing relation to the United States government-the speedy and pleasant re-union of all the States hindered by the workings of disappointed pride and political factions-the common good sacrificed to individual gain and party interestthe working-classes impoverished by taxation and the ruin of business -our most valnable citizens driven to emigrate and the in troduction of capital hindered-the immigra tion of productive labor discouraged, and animosity and strife fomented at home by injustice, and the oppression of individuals and classes of loyal citizens; therefore, we, citizens of North-Carolina, having assembled together to consult for our good, do 1. Resolved, That in a republican government the persistent efforts of the Executive to control or thwart the legislative department which immediately represents the minds and interests of the people, is a long stride toward despotism and seriously endangers the safety of the States.

2. That the speedy restoration of North-Carolina to her proper place in the Union of the States is indispensable to the safety, peace and welfare of her people.

3. That in our judgment this restoration can only be effected speedily, and in a way to secure the rights and safety of loyal men. by the adoption of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States recently passed by Congress.

4. That those to whom the offices in the gift of the people are entrusted, should be men whose lovalty is unquestioned, and for none other should loval men vote.

5. That the burden of our taxation is increased by useless and unequal legislation and this should receive the prompt attention of the representatives of the people, so that the revenue laws be made just and equal, and the debt of the State reduced.

6. That the loyal Union men of this district are not represented in the delegate appointed to the Philadelphia Cor . ention, lately in session, the real objects of which we believe to be inimical to peace and revolutionary in its tendency-an assemblage of office holders, office seekers and rebels.

7. That we call upon the loval men of every County in the State to assemble in public meetings-give full expression to their views-rally to the support of the United States government and sustain Congress in its purpose to make treason odious, and to restore the Union on a sound foundation. 8. That the people of this State should throw off the rule of party leaders-resume their political rights-have but two parties the loyal men who love the Union of every section on the one part, and all the shades of traitors on the other part.

9. That when the General or State government is administered in the interest of factions, party or sections, it becomes a curse to the people, and the ballot-box should at

10. That the loyal citizens of this State unite to petition Congress on its re-assembling to pass an act to enable the loyal citizens to form a Republican government-to restore the State to a condition to be receiv-

For the Standard. Union Meeting in Randolph. Pursuant to a previous call, a meeting was held at Bush Hill, N. C., on Friday, the 14th inst., composed of citizens of Randolph and

Guilford counties. The meeting was organized by calling S. W. Blair to the chair, and C. G. Hayworth to act as secretary.

The object of the meeting was explained by E. T. Blair, Esq., which object was unanimously concurred in by the meeting-the object being to appoint delegates to represent said meeting in Convention at Raleigh, on Thursday, the 20th. On motion, E. T. Blair, Riley Miller, and John English were unanimously elected. The audience was then entertained with an address by C. Holton, Esq., of Guilford county, after which the meeting adjourned. S. W. BLAIR, Ch'm'n. C. G. HAYWORTH, Sec.

THE STRIFE OF THREE CITIES.

From the New York Daily News. A long mooted question in musical circles has recently been permanently settled to the great satisfaction of lovers of justice generally, and especially to the delight of Southerners, who have watched the long struggle with Baltimore have been the contending parties in this prolonged dispute, which was boldly inaugurated by Messrs, Wm. Knabe & Co., of Baltimore, to determine whether the "hub," the metropolis of the Monumental City could turn out the best American piano. The great commercial town of Maryland can claim to lead. And this decision has not resulted from any one stated trial, but from a series of thorough comparative tests in New York, Chicago and other important business centres of the country. In every instance of Gonaives is laid in ashes. The inhabit-parties opposed to the "Knabe piano" have ants have deserted it. At St. Marie there been fairly beaten before an honest committee, or have refused utterly to meet the issue and backed down in the face of imminent defeat. This must settle the issue as fully as if a national convention had decided it, and in the future the South can boast of manufacturing the best piano of the country .-Knabe & Co. have been making these superb and a contest with them was inevitable .-Hence the various trials as above. People will have their prejudices in favor of one or another maker, and must be humored in them; but an article so long tried as this-one that has so often proved superior and freely accorded this palm by the best judges of Europe and America, has certainly more than ordinary claims upon a purchaser's attention. Substantial, durable, handsome to look at, delightful to listen to, keeping in tune longer than any other "Knabe" can, we cannot but commend the universal verdict in their favor. The great Southern house is again being extended to meet the wants of its immense and constantly increasing business, and this triumphant or insulted, and if she persists in her present success, overlapping a quarter of a century, is, after all, the true and indisputable test of instruments for thirty years, and their fame

is nothing new; but other piano concerns have sprung into existence meanwhile, claiming to beat the old house at its own trade,

A visit to their elegant warerooms, No 650 Broadway, in this city, will demonstrate the superiority of these celebrated instruments still more fully than any description which could be given of them.
